 Point of View Paper Write a narrative paper from the point of view of Eddie. Tell what kind of life he must have lived to become the person that he is. Describe possible difficulties he might have had to overcome, or hidden strengths he might have. Read the passage in the novel where Arielle overhears her mom and Chad 	RL.6-12.6 W.6-12.1 W.6-12.4 W.6-12.9
talking about her. Explain how the point of view of the character that makes the observation, in this case Arielle, influences the description. Discuss Arielle's point of view, her mother's point of view, and Chad's as well.
Draper uses a lot of specific sensory images in her novel. For example, "The classroom windowsdull, yellowed, and streaked. The stacks of chemistry books on the floor-covers curled at the edges. The computershumming and glowing with fuzzy printed text. A wastebasketoverflowing with paper and chip wrappers and dirty Kleenex. The sharp smell of orange peels and spilled chocolate milk-more trash. Desks-scuffed, scratched, and bent, never quite balanced on all four legs. The late winter sun-dull gold, trapped outside the locked windows. The painted concrete floor-criss-crossed with the shadows of dusty footprints. The periodic chart of the elements-creased, ripped, and memorized." Write your own descriptive paragraph that uses sensory imagery. Describe a specific scene and bring it to life with your words. Use vivid verbs and powerful adjectives and adverbs as you write. Use as many of the senses as you can (sight, sound, smell, touch, taste).	RL.6-12.5 W.6-12.3 W.6-12.4
Research Topics 1. Investigate the problems of prescription drug abuse, especially among high school students. Find out statistics as well as possible solutions for help. Find at least 3-4 current, relevant, authoritative, accurate, and credible sources that talk about the issue. Be sure to cite your sources used.	W.6-12.1 W.6-12.2 W.6-12.4 W.6-12.7 W.6-12.8

4. Write a paper that discusses the effects of guns and violence in a high school setting. You might discuss causes, effects, and possible solutions. Show the results of the effects on students, but personally, socially, and academically. Find at least 3-4 current, relevant, authoritative, accurate, and credible sources that talk about the issue. Be sure to cite your sources used.

Persuasive Paper	W.6-12.1
 Write a persuasive paper that answers the following question: What makes a 	W.6-12.4
hero? Be sure to use specifics to support your answer.
2. Think about the relationships between the friends in the book. Write a persuasive paper that answers the following question: Is friendship enough when situations become monumental and overwhelming to young people?
Be sure to use specifics to support your answer.
Comparison	RL.6-12.1
Compare and/or contrast the characters of Mrs. Witherspoon and Miss Pringle.	RL.6-12.3
Discuss their effectiveness at teaching their subjects, as well as how they relate to	W.6-12.1
students. Use specific examples from the book to support your statements.
Expository Essay	RL.6-12.1
The bullies make a video of their mistreatment of Osrick on a cell phone, which is	RL.6-12.3
later posted on a social networking site. Discuss the implications of these kinds of	W.6-12.3
events, and the short-term, as well as long-range results. How does it affect the	W.6-12.4
victim socially, emotionally, and personally? What effect, if any, do such things have on a school community?
Character Sketch	RL.6-12.1
"As she turned back around she saw Jack Krasinski on the other side of the room and	RL.6-12.3
instantly grinned. Kids called him Crazy Jack, and he loved it, even encouraged it. Tal and skinny and generally liked by everybody, Jack always wore bright, showy colors-	W.6-12.4
like green neon shirts and red plaid pants. When Osrick dressed in wacky clothes, students laughed and made fun of him, but if Jack decided to wear pajamas to school, Arielle noticed, everybody thought it was really cool. She wondered why Jack	( could get away with it, but Osrick couldn't. Jack played in the school band-cymbals and drums-instruments that made maximum noise. The louder the better. Jack had once told her the racket made the voices in his head get quiet. She had no idea what	:
he'd been talking about." Use Draper's sketch as an example to write a character sketch of a strong powerful or unusual persona friend, a relative, a family member Use strong verbs and adjectives, as well as sensory imagery.

of the following pairs of characters using a style that mimics Draper's style:	W.6-12.3
 Jericho to Olivia 	W.6-12.4
 Arielle to Brandon
 Kofi to his parents
Arielle to Chad
Osrick to Arielle
Poetry	RL.6-12.4
Write a poem about one of the following topics:	W.6-12.3
o The Hidden Hero
Guns and Violence
 The Need for Friends
 Fear and Destruction
 Courage

Literary Analysis	RL.6-12.1
"The monster knew at once that nowhere on earth	RL.6-12.2
Had he met a man whose hands were stronger.	RL.6-12.4
The monster's mind was filled with fear	RL.6-12.5
Horrible shrieks of pain and defeat,	RL.6-12.7
Tears torn out of Grendel's monstrous throat,	W.6-12.1
Caught in the arms of the one man	W.6-12.4
Who of all men on earth was the strongest."	W.6-12.9
The passage above comes from the ancient story called Beowulf . The teacher in Just Another Hero uses this passage as she discusses the subject of heroism in class. Write what you think the author was saying in this passage about good and evil and how the lines in this quote apply to the themes of the novel. Think about what is emphasized in each text. Think about what is different about each text. Be sure to provide evidence to support your argument from both texts.
